

Argentinean poet Alfonsina Storny (1892-1938) is known worldwide as the founder of Writers' Union of Argentina. After the death she was recognized as one of the best poets in Latin America. The same honor deserved Gabriela Mistral from Chile, Delmira Agustine and Juana de Ibarbourou from Uruguay. This collection includes poems which were created in different periods of time. Armenian translation of this collection is presented the first time.